

XIANGYING CHEN

Artist | Practice-Based Researcher

London, UK | x.chen1220201@arts.ac.uk

PROFILE

Artist and practice-based researcher working across installation, sculpture, mixed media, participatory methods and haptic encounters. Her practice follows the relations that form when artworks enter everyday environments, and develops artistic practice as a method of research.

EDUCATION

2023-2027	PhD in Fine Art (candidate) Chelsea College of Arts, University of the Arts London, UK Expected completion: late 2027
2021-2023	MA Fine Art Chelsea College of Arts, University of the Arts London, UK
2017-2021	BA Public Art School of Design, Jiangnan University, China Exchange study in Painting at Winchester School of Art, University of Southampton, 2019

SELECTED RESIDENCIES, EXHIBITIONS AND PROJECTS

2026	Artist Residency Uillinn: West Cork Arts Centre, Ireland Developed The Borrowing Library of Belonging.
2025	InterAct Hypha Studios, London, UK Presented Echoes of Collisions.
2024	Times VII: Shelter 87 Gallery, Hull, UK Echoes of Collisions selected for the exhibition and accompanying publication.
2021	COP_ART26: Art and Rapid Transition Online exhibition related to COP26 Presented Remain.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

2024	Homiens Art Prize - Highly Commended Artist
2024	British School at Athens Research Project - Shortlisted Proposal: Exploring Cultural Negotiations: Metics and Identity Formation in Historical Context

CONFERENCES AND RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS

2026	Performance Studies international Conference 31 (PSi 31) Jakarta, Indonesia English conference presentation.
2026	EAM10 Biennial Conference: Avant-Garde and Migration Stockholm University, Sweden Accepted English conference presentation.

SKILLS

Installation, sculpture, mixed media, participatory art, 3D printing, Rhino, Blender, practice-based research, participant interviews, project development, exhibition installation, art and research writing, public presentation.

LANGUAGES

Chinese; English (professional writing, communication and public presentation).